

Friends of Mount Athos

AUTUMN MEETING THURSDAY 6
NOVEMBER 2025

The Romanian Presence on Mount Athos

His Eminence Archbishop Atanasie, Archbishop of the Romanian Orthodox Archdiocese of Great Britain & Northern Ireland

Vespers, the Reception and the Lecture will all take place in

The Church of St Dunstan-in-the-West, 186a Fleet Street London EC4A 2HR

6pm Orthodox Vespers, 7pm Reception, 7.30pm Lecture

For our Autumn Meeting 2025 we are honoured to have as our guest speaker His Eminence Archbishop Atanasie, the newly elected first Archbishop of the Romanian Orthodox Archdiocese of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

His Eminence will speak on 'The Romanian Presence on Mount Athos', with particular reference to two newly canonised Romanian Athonite saints, Elder Dionysios of Vatopaidi of the Cell of St. George Kolytsou, and Hieromonk Petronios, of the Skete of St. John the Forerunner under the Holy Monastery of Great Lavra.

Tickets are £25 per person, or £15 for students. We expect this event to sell out, so to secure your place(s), please email foma.accadm@gmail.com stating the number and type of tickets required and the names/contact email addresses of all guests. Then please send the total amount by digital transfer to The Friends of Mount Athos, Sort Code 30-96-64, Account No. 00058730, quoting as reference Autumn + your surname.

Please email foma.accadm@gmail.com if you have any questions or special requests (including cash or cheque purchases).